

Quail Valley Proud Scholarship Application

Quail Valley Proud (QVP) Scholarships are awarded to graduating senior high school students who have lived in the Quail Valley Proud service area for the last four (4) years. The Quail Valley Proud service area includes Glenn Lakes, El Dorado, La Quinta, Thunderbird, Thunderbird West sections as well as the Cottages, Patio Homes and Quail Valley North. Applications are to be received no later than April 30th. All information submitted will be held in confidence and used solely for the purpose of scholarship administration.

Quail Valley Proud gives out several scholarships each year, with a special one being the Carolyn Bowden Scholarship. Carolyn was one of the founding members of Quail Valley Proud. In addition, we also facilitate the Cynthia Butterworth Scholarship for her family. Cynthia was a long time Crime Watch member.

APPLICANT ESSAY Instructions

The individuals who have made this scholarship possible designed the scholarship program to express their gratitude to the residents that have had their families grow up here. This is why one of our requirements is that you (the student) must have lived here for the last four (4) years.

To help us understand why you deserve this scholarship, please tell us about yourself and what it means to you to have lived in Quail Valley. For some, this may relate to friends or family. To others, this may relate to some tradition that revolves around the community. It also may relate to a specific event or time in your life that involves the neighborhood in some way.

All essays should be on a separate sheet. Include your name at the top of the page(s). Please use 12-point font. One page minimum, two pages maximum.

Mrs. Carolyn Bowden was a life-long supporter of Quail Valley and Quail Valley Proud. In 1991 Carolyn was part of the group that founded Quail Valley Proud, and we are a better community because of it. Every year we award a scholarship in her honor to a high school senior that demonstrates the qualities that Carolyn lived – Community, Service, and Involvement. To qualify for this scholarship, please highlight your community involvement and how you have provided service to Quail Valley.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION Instructions

As an applicant, reach out to a Teacher, Counselor, Community Representative, Employer to request a letter of recommendation. Make sure they know that the Quail Valley Proud Scholarship program is designed to express their gratitude to the residents of Quail Valley, specifically those that have had their families grow up here and how individuals get involved in their community.

To help us make this important decision, please have them include any information you think will assist the committee in its consideration. Specifically: Why should the Quail Valley Proud Scholarship Committee select the you as a scholarship recipient? Please have them include their signature, title, and date. One page minimum, two pages maximum.

The letter of recommendation may be emailed to scholarship@quailvalleyproud.com or given to the you to include with your packet. The deadline for filing the application is April 30, 2022.
